

Please do not allow the use of cell phones on commercial aircraft beyond the rules presently in place.

Flying is noisy enough and adding to this noise factor will only make flying more uncomfortable for those of us who prefer quiet surroundings.

I am also concerned about passengers who become overly annoyed by the passengers who continue to talk on their phones, making comments and actions towards the user of the cell phones.